

My great grandmother gave me a locket and inside of that locket is a button, and if you pressed that button you could be in a snowglobe. I didn't know what it was at first, until one day I pressed that button and "poof" sparkles came out. I was trapped in the snowglobe and every 10 minutes the ground shook and snow came down.

I met a new friend, her name was Susie Snowflake. We did everything together we went sledding, made snow angels and had a snowball fight. We went to Santa's Workshop. Something was fishy about Susie Snowflake. She would make hot chocolate for me and she had some herself, she was already on her 3rd cup and finished a plate full of cookies

We visited the gift shop which was full of TOYS! The gift shop was called Rudolph's Toy Chest. They had challenges like present wrapping. I asked "who ever breaks The World Record gets to be head elf?" At elf first I was confused "Head Elf?" What? And The Highest World Record was "Susie Snowflake!" Susie SNowflake said "In the gift shop, we can be elves" i thought this was another fishy thing about her.

"Susie what has been going on with you?" I asked. She looked at me and didn't respond. "It's ok, you can tell me anything." She turned and said "I have been keeping something from you." said susie. "Just tell me Susie?" I said.

"I'm an EL...f" Susie whispered "wait, what did you just say? ELf?" She grabbed my arm because i was so furious, i turned around to walk away and Susie accidently broke my Locket, when she grabbed me. I was stuck in the snow globe Forever!

But what she didn't know, I was an elf too!
