

Mr. Joyce Becomes Michael Jackson

By: Trinity Phelan

It was a typical day at Oglesby Washington School and Mr. Joyce was walking down to the gym to set for his first class at 9:18. Since he was all ready he decided he should just put on some music and just start jamming out. When he started to play music on the Itunes radio Michael Jackson came on and then suddenly he felt this strange feeling and started to breakout into Michael Jackson dance moves. After school that day he went to go pack up and go home. He noticed his speaker in the corner. He was so attempted to go and get it, so he did. When he turned on his Itunes radio Michael Jackson was playing again and Mr. Joyce started to breakout into dances moves again. He realized that this must be power from the heavens above that he can dance just like Michael Jackson. He also thought " Wow this is great that I'm the next Michael Jackson. What if people will think I'm trying to copy him." He was scared so he turned off the radio and went to his car.

When he was driving home and Justin Bieber started to play on 103.3 The Q. He thought to himself " Jeez what kind of music is this. What happened to Michael Jackson and The Jackson 5 music." Mr. Joyce was really hating this kind of music that is playing today.

Suddenly, he got this crazy idea to take over the music industry and defeat Justin Bieber. However, he kept thinking what if he loses his power that the heavens above gave to him he didn't know what to do.

The next day he decided that he should talk to the expert about it and that's me Trinity Phelan. I'm the biggest Michael Jackson fan in the whole wide world (ok maybe I over exaggerated but in my world I'm the biggest fan ever) I knew everything about Michael Jackson so that's why he came to see me. I asked Mr.Joyce "Do you have a limit on this power?" He replied " I don't know if I do, so that's why I came to you." I wonder how he got this power, but that doesn't matter. I told Mr.Joyce he should do what his heart wants if he wants to defeat Justin Bieber under one condition he needs some help so I volunteered to help him. He said no, but I told him if you want to defeat him he need someone who knows a lot about Michael Jackson. He sat there thinking then he answered " Fine you can help me." I was so happy that we are taking down the Biebs and bringing back MJ

It's been a month ever since I started teaching Mr.Joyce Michael Jackson dances. I think he is ready to perform his first concert here in the gym. He has been practicing a lot and this performing is gonna knock the socks off their feet. I'm pretty sure he's also gonna raise the roof too. It was hard to teach him the dances he's doing, but he pulled his act together and got through the routines.

One year later, Mr.Joyce quit his job. Thanks to my help, he became the next Michael Jackson impersonator. He also took down Justin Bieber in a dance-off too.
